

Little Event bursary information and application guidelines

Little Event 2023

Thursday 19th January, 3:00pm-6:30pm &
Saturday 21st January, 9:00am-1:15pm
Online via Zoom*

This year BIG is offering bursary places which will pay registration fees for the Little Event, BIG membership for one year and cover reasonable expenses associated with attending the Little Event. This is open to anyone who is in the first five years of their professional career/studies and has not attended the Little Event or any other of BIG's events before.

To apply for a bursary-funded place, please complete the online application form at <https://www.big.uk.com/Little2023>

Deadline: 11:59pm, Sunday 11th December, 2022 Late applications will not be considered.

NB. This document is for information only and may not be submitted as your application. You can use the form below to complete your responses and then cut-and paste them into the online application form.

Eligibility

1. Applicants must be within the first 5 years of their professional career/studies in the STEM or STEM engagement sectors and based in the UK; and
2. Applicants must not have attended the Little Event or any other of BIG's events before.

What will you have to do in return?

Nothing, just come and enjoy the event!

Expenses will be issued on receipt of a completed expenses form after the Little Event. However, talk to us if this process would put you under unnecessary financial stress, and we can make other arrangements.

What happens next?

BIG will assess each application and attempt to award bursaries to achieve a geographic and subject area spread. You will be notified either way in the w/c 10th January, 2023. Successful applicants will receive information about the bursary amount allotted for your reasonable expenses and how to claim these expenses.

If you are successful with your bursary application and have already booked and paid for your conference place, BIG will refund your registration and membership fees.

*Each Zoom session will have automated Closed Captions.
