

Little Event 2019 bursary information and application guidelines

Little Event 2019

Thursday 24th January, 2019

Thinktank, Birmingham Museums,
Birmingham, UK

This year BIG is offering bursary places which will pay registration fees for the Little Event, BIG membership for one year and cover reasonable expenses associated with attending the Little Event. This is open to BIG members who are in the first five years of their professional career and have not attended the Little Event or any other of BIG's events before.

To apply for a bursary-funded place, please complete the online application form at <https://www.big.uk.com/event-3117877>

Deadline: 6pm, Wednesday 5th December, 2018 Late applications will not be considered.

NB. This document is for information only and may not be submitted as your application. You can use the form below to complete your responses and then cut-and paste them into the online application form.

Eligibility

1. Applicants must be BIG members with membership beginning no later than 5 December, 2018;
2. Applicants must be within the first 5 years of their professional career in the STEM engagement sector in the UK; and
3. Applicants must not have attended the Little Event or any other of BIG's events before.

What will you have to do in return?

Nothing, just come and enjoy the event!

Expenses will be issued on receipt of a completed expenses form after the Little Event.

What happens next?

BIG will assess each application and attempt to award bursaries to achieve a geographic and subject area spread. You will be notified either way in the w/c 17th December, 2018. Successful applicants will receive information about the bursary amount allotted for your reasonable expenses and how to claim these expenses.

IMPORTANT: You are responsible for organising and paying for your own travel and accommodation and you will need to produce receipts for each item.

If you are successful with your bursary application and have already booked and paid for your conference place, BIG will refund your registration and membership fees.
